SO ORDERED.

Ona T. Wang 1/17/20
U.S. Magistrate Judge

Re: Tucker v. Abercrombie & Fitch Co., Case No. 19cv10032

Dear Judge Wang:

The parties write to request an adjournment of the February 4, 2020 initial case management conference. [ECF Doc. 9]. On December 27, 2019, Defendant Abercrombie & Fitch Co. submitted a pre-motion conference request regarding its anticipated motion to dismiss Plaintiff Henry Tucker's Complaint [ECF Doc. 10] which is pending. The parties have conferred, and are in agreement, that until the issues contemplated by the anticipated motion are briefed and adjudicated, an initial pretrial conference and discovery would be premature.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, the parties ask the Court to adjourn the initial case management conference until after the pleadings are settled.

Very truly yours,

Liana R. Hollingsworth
One of the Attorneys for Defendant

cc: Jeffery M. Gottlieb, Esq.
Russell L. Porter, Esq.

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to Section I(e) of Your Honor's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, this is the parties' first request to adjourn the initial case management conference. Additionally, Defendant requested a stay of discovery as part of its pre-motion conference request which is pending. [ECF Doc. 10].
